Lauren Christian Pork Chop Open 2007

Proceeds from the annual Lauren Christian Pork Chop Open go toward the Lauren L. Christian Endowment at Iowa State University. Dr. Christian taught pork production at ISU from 1966 to 1995 to more than 3,000 students. This endowment in his name supports swine research through fellowship grants, scholarships, and program enhancements, and benefits the students and the industry he served and loved.

You can support the endowment through the 2007 Lauren Christian Pork Chop Open by sponsoring a hole ($250), participating in the tournament and/or dinner, donating or purchasing auction items, or through other financial support.
